

From: John Lewis
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 8:50am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I have read through the proposed settlement in this case and believe that the "remedy" offered will generally have no affect on Microsoft's business practices. If this court approves the settlement, it tacitly ignores 20 years of Microsoft acting in bad faith while laboring under previous conduct oriented settlements and court orders. A structural remedy is the only realistic solution for correcting Microsoft's pattern of anti-competitive behavior.